Chapter 1 Study Guide

How can a region and landform be related?	The different regions of the United States sometimes share the same landforms.
How are weather and climate different?	Weather changes everyday. Climate is a pattern of weather over a long time.
What is precipitation?	rain, snow, hail, sleet
Give an example of how a natural resource, human resource and capital resource are related.	Trees are used to make furniture so it's a natural resource. The person who makes the furniture is a human resource. The tools and machines the person uses are capital resources.
Why is water a renewable resource?	Water can be replaced by going through the water cycle.
Why does the Northeast have a colder climate than the Southeast?	The Northeast is farther from the equator than the Southeast.
How does geography of SD affect us?	South Dakota has flat land that makes it good for farming.

In what region is Georgia?	Southeast Region
In what region is Montana?	West Region
In what region is Oklahoma?	Southwest Region
In what region is Illinois?	Midwest Region
In what region is New York?	Northeast Region

In what region is South Dakota?   Midwest Region

* Study all vocabulary words in your notes!!